

1. legacy (n.) an inheritance; something handed down from an ancestor or from the past
2. harmonious (adj.) able to get along together well; combining different elements that blend pleasingly; melodious
3. hoard (n.) a hidden store or supply hoard (v.) to store up, save 4. feud (v.) to fight or quarrel with feud (n.) a bitter, long-term quarrel

5. cynical (adj.) inclined to believe the worst of people; bitterly mocking or sneering

6. patronize (v.) to give one's business to regularly as a customer; to support, provide financial help; to treat someone as an inferior while making a show of being kind or gracious

7. authoritative (adj.) official, coming from a source that calls for obedience or belief; dictatorial

8. hardy (adj.) able to bear up under difficult conditions or harsh treatment; brave and tough

9. officiate (v.) to perform the duties of an office; to conduct a religious ceremony; to referee

10. despot (n.) a ruler who oppresses his or her subjects, a tyrant

11. rite (n.) a ceremony; the customary form of a ceremony; any formal custom or practice

12. indisposed (adj., part.) slightly ill; disinclined to do something

13. partial (adj.) not complete; favoring one side over another; showing a strong liking for someone or something

14. clamor (v.) to call for by loud, continued outcries

clamor (n.) a public outcry; any loud and continued noise

15. legitimate (adj.) lawful, rightful;
reasonable, justifiable

16. sagacious (adj.) shrewd; wise in a keen, practical way

17. bankrupt (adj.) in a state of financial ruin bankrupt (n.) one who has been ruined financially bankrupt (v.) to ruin financially

18. mirth (n.) merry fun, gaiety; laughter

19. coincide (v.) to be in full agreement; to be the same in nature, character, or function; to happen at the same time

20. haggle (v.) to argue in a petty way, especially about a price