

Hayfield Blue & Gold Junior Choir

Handbook

2022-2023

Blue & Gold Choir Students and Parents,

Hello and welcome to Blue & Gold Junior High Choir! I'm looking forward to another year as the choral director at Hayfield High School.

This handbook's purpose is to outline this year's schedule, expectations, class rules, grading policies, and more. Please familiarize yourself with the handbook as it is a great place to refer to throughout the year and contains a great deal of information.

After reading the handbook, please sign the letter/schedule sheet and hand it back in during class time. The handbook is available on my classroom website and Teams. If there are any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me by phone, email, or just stop in the choir room.

I've excited for all that this year has in store for the Hayfield choir program and all that we will accomplish!

Sincerely,

Mrs. Megan Lynch

Concerts

Concerts are a major part of your summative assessment grade. All concerts bolded in the schedule below are graded and require attendance. Make sure to mark these performances on your family calendar or post them on the fridge. Concert expectations and grading rubric will be given and explained before each concert.

Excused absences: Excused absences include personal illness, family emergencies, and unavoidable family trips (made before the beginning of the school year). These absences may be made up by an individual performance of your part for Mrs. Lynch. If an excused absence does occur, an email or phone call must be provided to Mrs. Lynch by a parent/guardian. Remember work or lack of transportation are not considered an excused absence. Make sure to plan ahead.

Unexcused absences: An unexcused absence is an absence not verified from a parent or guardian. These absences will be made up with an alternative concert assignment and an individual performance of your part of the concert music.

Concert Dress: Choir members should wear appropriate dress clothes for performances. It is important to look our best! All outfits must follow the school dress code.
